Disciplinary Action

If there is sufficient evidence to support the allegations, disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion may be taken against the offender.

If there is insufficient evidence to support the allegations, no record will be made of the allegations in the complaining student's permanent record or in the accused student's permanent record.

In the event the investigation discloses that the complaining student has falsely accused another individual of bullying knowingly or in a malicious manner, the complaining student may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion.

In the event the bullying involves violent or other conduct which could be reasonably considered to be criminal in nature, the building administrator will refer the matter to the local law enforcement agency ~~in~~ for violation of Idaho Code 18-917A.

In the event that it can be proven that cyberbullying took place using district resources, i.e. computers or phones, the student found to have used district equipment may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion (see Policy 1001.3)

PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION

No retaliation will be taken against a student, parent or employee who reports bullying in good faith. Any person found to have retaliated against another individual for reporting an incident of bullying may be subject to the same disciplinary action up to and including expulsion.
