10 The power to expel a student permanently from school is a power retained by the board of trustees.

11
12 The burden of responsibility for discipline within any school in this district shall remain with the 13 principals. They have been selected for these jobs because of the board's faith in their judgment
14 and abilities.

15
16 PROCEDURES:

17
18 The administration of each school is charged with decisions concerning the discipline of any student.
19 When all facts and evidence have been presented and provided that a fair and just decision has 20 been made according to the rules of the district, the board pledges to sustain the principal in the 21 decision concerning the discipline of any student.

22
23 If the board, in review, reaches a decision that differs from the recommendation of the principal, this 24 difference shall be justified only by:
