9
10 When children are kept after school to make up work missed by absence, or to clarify
11 individual misunderstandings and difficulties, this should be done with the knowledge
12 and consent of the parents. The right of parents to have their children home at regular 13 times must be respected.

14
15 No teacher should detain bus children after school without permission of the principal 16 and cooperation of the parents.

18 When students are assigned lunch detention or assigned to a designated location to 19 complete missing work, they will be afforded the opportunity to eat lunch and will be 20 supervised by a staff member(s).
