10 High School:

11
12 The first incidence of cheating in any form or manner will cause the offending student to 13 lose credit for the assignment. A second instance of cheating in the same class will 14 cause the student to be withdrawn from the course in which the cheating occurred and 15 assigned to a study hall. The offending student will receive no credit for the applicable
16 semester. Parent will be contacted in each case.

17
18 Middle School:

19
20 The first incidence of cheating in any form or manner will cause the offending student to 21 lose credit for the assignment. A second instance of cheating will result in a Step Five
22 (5) Referral (minimum one-day suspension). Further instances of cheating will be 23 referred to the subsequent step in the Middle School Student Handbook. Parent will be 24 contacted in each case.

25
26 Elementary School:

27
28 The first incidence of cheating in any form or manner will cause the offending student to 29 lose credit for the assignment. The student will conference with the teacher and the 30 parents will be notified. A second instance of cheating will result in a loss of credit for 31 the assignment and a conference with the teacher, principal and parent will take place.
32 Any subsequent offenses will result in a loss of credit and a behavior plan will be 33 developed.

35 DUE PROCESS: The student has the right to due process in the event he/she is 36 accused of violating a policy, regulation, or rule established by the school district,
37 administration, or classroom teacher. (Refer to "Due Process for Students" as outlined
38 in the Senior High Handbook.)
